Important: Updates to our legal documents and terms

2024-08-27 - Lucas From FXGlobe Support - Legal Update

Dear Client,

We're making some updates to our legal agreements that will apply to you.

What's New?

We've added a subclause (18.11) to Section 18 of the Client Agreement to clarify that the Swaps fee is subject to change.

What Should You Do?

Please carefully review the updated Client Agreement Terms & Conditions to familiarise yourself with these changes. By continuing to use our services after the changes take effect, you agree to be bound by those changes.

If you have questions about any of these changes or your account, feel free to reach out to us at support@fxglobe.eu.

Best regards,

FXGlobe Team
